

The Great Flood 1953

Christ Church wasn't spared either!

The Vicar, Peter Street, is known to have helped many people during this time, and rumour has it that he rowed a boat down one aisle of the church to save various artefacts.

